“ Shipping costs money, good shipping is profitable. That's what we believe in. We look at more than just the rate and shipping of containers. **”

Your Partner in Logistics

Merzario distinguishes itself through our service, our transparent approach and the way in which we think along with our customers. We do the latter proactively. All this, combined with our many years of experience, makes Merzario an experienced specialist in the field of sea freight, air freight, cross trades and everything around it.

Ocean Freight

Merzario is your reliable partner for all shipments by sea. You can contact us for Import & Export, FCL & LCL, Cross Trades and Project cargo. Through our Track & Trace system you can: Follow every shipment 24/7. We fully believe in personal contact and transparent communication. We take a constructive approach with our customers. These are not empty phrases, practice has proven this time and time again.

We provide door-to-door deliveries in collaboration with our global offices. Our experienced employees are happy to assist you.

Air Freight

Your goods must be taken from one place to another quickly. That is why you choose to ship them by air. You are looking for a reliable forwarding agent who has the knowledge and who will make all the arrangements for you. As IATA (International Air Transport Association) agent, we offer a comprehensive service on the field of air freight.

Our aviation specialists are at home in the world of airline companies, airports and processing in any situation regardless of where the final destination may be.

Our Expertise

Customs

Merzario has its own customs department where experienced experts work. They are not restricted to one specific type of product, but can assist you with advice, accurate calculation, smooth handling of documents and a timely payment of taxes, levies and duties with regard to all types of cargoes. Merzario is, moreover, AEO (Authorised Economic Operator) certified. Our own internal customs clearance, limitlessly easy!

High-quality Service

Import, export, cross trade and project cargo: we mainly offer you convenience in the entire logistics process. From bookings at shipping companies, ensuring that your goods are at the quayside at the right moment, the sea shipment itself up to and including reception, customs clearance, delivery and administrative processing.

We think before we move

Communication is essential, digital and personal. It is this combination, in particular, that distinguishes us from many other forwarding agents. We believe that air cargo shipping is more than just determining the rate. We will start a dialogue with you. What are your requirements and conditions and what's the best way we can get your goods to their destination? Merzario: We think before we move!

Our employees are ready for you. Contact us directly and experience Merzario for yourself.
